French business climate and turning point indicators – February 2017

In February 2017, the French business climate holds firm above its long-term average

The French business climate indicator confirms the upturn started in December 2016

In February 2017, the business climate remains favourable, confirming the positive trend since last December. The composite indicator, compiled from the answers of business managers in the main sectors, stands four points above its long-term average (100). The climate has gained one point in industry. It is stable in building construction and services. In contrast, it has lost three points in retail trade.
