

Quality table for the Real-estate Development Tendency Survey

CONTACT
Country (Area)	France.
Survey	Real-estate Development Tendency Survey
Service investigator	National Institute of Statistics and Economic Studies Economic Studies and National Accounts Directorate Short Term Economic Forecasts Department Business Tendency Surveys Division.
Reference year of data	2015
Data of completion	February 2016

METHODOLOGY
Population reference (Universe)	8 000 firms
Sampling frame	Statistical Business Register SIRUS
Size of the actual frame list	8 000 firms
Characteristics of the frame list	Identification, address, contact, NACE code, number of employees, turnover.
Frame list update	Every year or 2 years
Sampling method	The sample is stratified by workforce and activity sector. Updating every year or every two years: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • sample cleaning: clearance of ceased or out of activity field firms; new big companies are included; • Sample increase: random drawing of firms according to a stratified sampling.
Sample size	1 000 units.
Sample coverage	14,3% % of the universe
Sectors and/or categories currently covered	According to NAF rév. 2 classification: 41.10A, 68.20A
Sample representativeness	Between 2 to 3 points of balance.

12/04/2016

Response rate	January 2015 – December 2015 : Non-weighted response rate : 48%
Treatment of non-responses	Non-response treatment is not operated.
Weighting	No particular treatment.
Periodicity	Quarterly (January, April, July and October).
Survey method	Postal mail or Internet data collection since April 2011
Fieldwork period	The 3 first weeks of the surveyed quarter.
Timeliness	4 working days before the end of the first month of the surveyed quarter.
Remarks	The first results relating to a survey are provisional. Revised results are released at the following survey. These definitive results take into account of late responses arrived after the first release.